We have the contacts

We understand that there's always more to a currency transfer than the simple exchange of funds. Our background in international property transactions gives us access to a network of trusted overseas professionals from estate agents to conveyancers.

We've got the skills

Our expert managers have access to the latest cutting-edge transfer tools to eliminate currency uncertainty and even boost your chances of getting a great rate. But what sets the traders at Foreign Currency Partners apart from others, is the personal touch. We take time to really get to know you, your situation and your plans for the future. With an FCP personal account manager as your guide, you remain in control but the stress and uncertainty of transfers is removed.

"Unlike other FX businesses, Foreign Currency Partners was born after Brexit. We're not adapting an old business model to new circumstances. This is our time. We were built for now."
